Let's Pray

Sun 21 September - Sat 27 September 2025

Sunday 21 September

- Moderator | This Sunday the Moderator will be taking the morning Harvest Thanksgiving Service at Cootehill PC whose minister is the Rev Daryl Edwards and then in the evening he will be presenting certificates at a service for Accredited Preachers. Pray that there will be a sense of God's presence at both services and that the newly appointed Accredited Preachers will know guidance and inspiration as they seek to open God's Word to people in various settings.
- Knowing the blessings of God in worship | Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work in us, to him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Ephesians 3:20-21. Ask that as you worship today you may know the blessing of God's ability to constantly exceed our expectations of him.

Monday 22 September

- Neil & Jenny Stewart, global mission workers, Spain | Pray for Neil and Jenny as they seek to strike a balance between church life, with all its opportunities for preaching and discipling relationships, their language studies, and in family life, especially as they make plans for the children's education.
- United Mission to Nepal (UMN) | Having navigated its way through nationwide protests resulting in the loss of 51 lives, pray for Nepal's former Chief Justice, Sushila Karki, who was recently appointed the country's 42th Prime Minister. Remember too, all who are grieving the loss of loved ones due to the recent upheaval. Pray for Dhana Lama, UMN Executive Director, along with all in positions of leadership in the organisation, as they navigate what is an historic time of transition for the country.

Tuesday 23 September

- Drum, Cootehill and Kilmount - Rev Daryl Edwards | Please pray for the start of a new season in congregational life, especially for the Thursday kids Club, Sunday schools & youth fellowship as they work amongst the children & young people to point them to Jesus.
- Rev Lindsay Blair, healthcare chaplain | Give thanks for the committed team of Western Trust chaplains. Pray they would provide appropriate pastoral and spiritual care to patients and others who they meet. Also give thanks for all the support and encouragement given by the Trust, praying that the Chaplaincy Service will continue to inspire and strengthen service users and bring glory to God.

Wednesday 24 September

- Stephen & Angelina Cowan, global mission workers, Kenya | Praise God for the teams who put so much time and effort into the recent junior and senior youth camps as they examined together the theme of 'Rooted firmly in Christ'. Give thanks that the young people were attentive and disciplined during the engaging teaching sessions. Pray that these camps would bear fruit in the lives of many.
- Presbyterian Church of Myanmar (PCM) | The situation in Myanmar continues to worsen, especially in some regions where PCM members are located and facing immense challenges for their daily survival. Pray especially for an end to blockades enforced by the authorities that have been leading to severe shortages of goods, medicines, and electronic supplies.

Thursday 25 September

- Gavin Doyle, community outreach worker, Trinity Cork | Please pray for our English language class ministry and that some of the students would come along to church on Sunday. Pray for the people of Cork as we preach the gospel on the street, that hearts and minds would be opened to God's Word.
- Howth and Malahide – Rev Alastair Dunlop | Give thanks for the ongoing witness of the congregations in Howth and Malahide, particularly praying for Rev Alastair Dunlop as he ministers there and the ruling elders as they offer leadership.

Friday 26 September

- Carlisle House | Addiction is an ever-growing problem throughout Ireland. Pray for those suffering, that they may get the right help and support to overcome their addiction problems. Pray for Carlisle House as it provides addiction support. Pray for its service users, that they will use their time in Carlisle House to rebuild their lives and that they will resist the desire to return to their past habits and behaviours.
- Poverty | Pray for the Department of Communities as they continue to work on the Northern Ireland Anti-Poverty Strategy. Pray for all those struggling and living in poverty across Ireland. Give thanks for organisations like Christians Against Poverty & others who support people overwhelmed by debt & financial challenges. Pray that those who are in difficulty will find ways to access the support they need.

Saturday 27 September

- General Council | Pray for a number of groups meeting this incoming week including the Support Services Committee, convened by Mr Hugo Wilson, which oversees aspects such as IT, Human Resources, Property and Finance. Pray for wisdom and discernment in their decision-making. Remember also the panel considering ordination, convened by the Rev Dr Ben Walker.
- Training in Ministry | Pray for the College librarian, Joy Conkey, in her many tasks, providing support for lecturers, students and others who use the library. Pray that she may be fulfilled in her work and that she may be a blessing to everyone. Pray that she may know wisdom as she seeks to care for the tens of thousands of books, magazines and documents in her keeping.
