Let's Pray

Sun 29 November - Sat 5 December 2026

Sunday 29 November

- Moderator | This Sunday, the Moderator will be leading the service at Ballygrainey Presbyterian Church – minister, Rev James Rogers. Pray for the service and also for the life and witness of the congregation in the local area and beyond.
- Worship as an act of faith and love this Christmas | 'I am the Lord's servant,' Mary answered. 'May your word to me be fulfilled.' Then the angel left her. Luke 1:38. Pray that we might approach worship this Christmas season with all that we are, offering our lives afresh in faith and love to God.

Monday 30 November

- Neil & Jenny Stewart, global mission workers, Spain | Give thanks for the personal relationships that Neil and Jenny are developing in the community and pray that these would lead to gospel conversations. Give thanks for the various ministries they are involved in, including preaching, theological education and Bible studies, praying that each would prove fruitful in the lives of many.
- THIMAR, Lebanon | Pray for the work of THIMAR as it continues its work in Lebanon which faces crisis upon crisis. Pray especially as it seeks to equip the Church to be the hands and feet of Jesus, showing his unconditional love and compassion to the many within the country who are displaced, refugees and experiencing poverty and vulnerability.

Tuesday 1 December

- Fermoy & Cahir, Rev William Montgomery | Pray for Rev William Montgomery and the congregations of Fermoy & Cahir as they continue to meet for worship and to be a witness in these towns. Pray for the Youth Group in their weekly gatherings and give thanks for those who attend.
- David Johnston, International Meeting Point (IMP) North | Thank God for the good number of regular and new people attending weekly activities. Please pray for more volunteers that have a heart for newcomers and the mission of IMP. Pray for the Al Massira evangelistic course running on Thursdays.

Wednesday 2 December

- Edwin & Anne Kibathi, global mission workers, UK | Pray that God would grant wisdom as Edwin and Anne seek to interact and minister amongst different age groups, effectively mentoring and retaining the younger generation in congregational life with a view to them taking up leadership roles. Pray especially for young people representing the second and third generations of immigrants, some feeling disconnected and misunderstood, that they will be able to discover a strong sense of identity in Jesus Christ.
- PakMission, Pakistan | Pray for the ongoing work of the Pastors' Holistic Development Programme as it seeks to equip emerging church leaders for their spiritual journey and to develop their professional capacities. Pray that each of these young pastors would be inspired to effectively communicate a vision for mission as they go about serving in diverse ministry contexts.

Thursday 3 December

- Rev John Coulter, chaplain, Ulster University Coleraine | Pray for an openness to the true meaning of Christmas among students and staff in this season, for opportunities to share the truth about Jesus in helpful and meaningful ways, for wisdom, energy, and creativity for John as he continues to be a Christian presence on campus.
- St Columba's, Lisburn, Rev Rodney Cameron | Pray for two ventures to be launched by St Columba's in December. A four-week "Journey to Christmas" programme for children in the neighbourhood who don't normally attend church, which will include breakfast, teaching and a Christmas craft before the Sunday service. The second event is a Community Christmas Celebration involving representatives from schools, local charities and civic leaders. Pray that both events will be well supported, and the congregation's witness will be strengthened.

Friday 4 December

- General Council | Pray for all who work in Assembly Buildings in the various Councils and departments. Remember the staff team as they make preparations to celebrate Christmas with friends and family and as they take part in the Christmas Carol service in Assembly Buildings in the coming week.
- Training in Ministry | The Reception of Ministers and Licentiates Committee receives requests from ministers in other denominations, in Ireland and elsewhere, to become ministers in PCI. Pray for Rev Lachlan Webster, the convener, and the Committee, and give thanks for those who have become ministers in PCI by this route. Pray that the Lord would bless them, and use them to enrich our denomination.

Saturday 5 December

- Retail | Give thanks for those who work in retail and pray for their protection in the busy run up to Christmas. Pray that God would grant them grace, patience and stamina as they work long hours and serve customers who may be experiencing their own hassles and stress.
- Trinity House | Give thanks for Trinity House residential home in Garvagh and for all who live and work there. Pray especially for the residents living with dementia. Surround them with your peace, comfort, and love, especially in moments of confusion or uncertainty. Bless the staff, families, and friends who support them each day with patience, understanding, and compassion. May Trinity House be a place of dignity, security, and kindness, where every resident is valued and cared for.
